Region and Area

- Magic city of Orient, Marrakech is full of charm, mystery and bustle, at the crossroads of the Sahara and the Upper Atlas.
- Near to the Middle Atlas Mountains, where the Waterfalls of Beni Mellal are found, and to Essaouira on the Atlantic ocean.
- Marrakech comprises both an old fortified city (Medina) and an adjacent modern city (Gueliz)
- Plenty of excursions to take: the valley of the Ourika River in the Atlas Mountains or the valley of the Draa River in the south, near the Sahara desert.
- The largest traditional souk in Morocco, a wonderful place to visit and also one of the most famous and friendly squares in Africa with acrobats, story-tellers, water sellers, dancers and musicians.
- By night food stalls open in the square turning it into a huge and festive open-air restaurant.
